3. Out-of-State Travel

1. CWW Yellowstone Trip-Yellowstone National Park-Wyoming
On February 6-10 Laura Carrasco and Jeffrey Kaiser will be taking students on the EPI (Ecology Project International) Yellowstone trip. They will be traveling down on Wednesday, February 6, in Suburbans provided by EPI and staying at the B bar Ranch just outside of Gardiner, Montana. Food will be provided for the students for each of the 5 days. Twelve students will be participating in this trip that lasts 5 days. Each day they will be traveling into Yellowstone National Park in the aforementioned Suburbans.

2. NW Regional Choir-Portland, Oregon
Ruth Reneau is planning to take 3 students to Portland, Oregon, to participate in the All-Northwest Choirs. They will be leaving school on Thursday, February 14, and arriving home again on Sunday, February 17. They will be driving to Missoula where they will ride a bus with other students and directors departing from Missoula.

Mr. Johnson stated that these trips are taken annually.

Trustee Wyche moved to approve out-of-state travel for the CHS CWW trip to Yellowstone National Park, and the CHS NW Regional Choir trip to Portland, Oregon.

Trustee Channer seconded the motion, and all voted in favor.
