ACTIVITY AGREEMENT
CORVALLIS HIGH SCHOOL

1. ACADEMIC & ATTENDANCE ELIGIBILITY

I understand that in order to participate in an Association Contest, a student must be eligible by the Montana High School Association standard that states, "a student must have passed 20 hours of class (4 classes) the last preceding semester he/she was in attendance". Ineligibility is for a semester. Furthermore, I understand that everyone participating in an activity must be eligible by the Corvallis High School Eligibility Policy which states that a student needs to maintain a C- or cannot be failing 2 or more core classes. Eligibility will run weekly (Tuesday to Tuesday). Please find the exact policy on the reverse side.

CORVALLIS HIGH SCHOOL PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

It is the belief of the administration and staff that participation in extracurricular programs is a privilege extended to you by your school. You will be representing your school and the community. We expect you to have pride in yourself, your activity, and Corvallis High School. You will strive to be a good citizen at all times. These rules will cover the period from the first day of fall practice through/including the last day of school. Rules listed on this document are subject to board policy. Board policy references are intended as a general guide, not a comprehensive list.

RULES

1. Maintain a weekly C- average:
 - a) A student who does not have C- average or is receiving failing marks in two or more core classes will be placed on academic probation for a period of seven days.
 - b) A student who continues to have an average less than a C- or continues to fail two or more core classes after the probationary period will be ineligible to participate or travel until the average is a C-. The student will be expected to practice and meet all other team guidelines during the probationary period.
 - c) Transfer students will come under the MHS rules upon entering Corvallis High School, but must be earning a C- average within four weeks of entry.

2. No use of, distribution of, or possession of substances banned in Corvallis School Board Policy.:
 - a) First violation of use of, possession of or distribution of substances banned in Corvallis School Board Policy will result in the participant's choice of:
 1. Immediate expulsion from activity for the remainder of the season; or
 2. Two week suspension from activity and enrollment, attendance, and successful completion of an approved Chemical Dependency Program.
 - b) Second violation of use of, possession of, substances banned in Corvallis School Board Policy will result in participant's being expelled from activities for the remainder of the year. Following expulsion, in order to participate in activities in subsequent years, the student must successfully complete an approved Chemical Dependency Program.
 - c) Association with substances banned in Corvallis School Board Policy (e.g., being in the area of a kegger, on the premises of a house party, or in the company of other minors or young adults who are drinking, using tobacco, or doing drugs) will have immediate consequences.
 1. 1st offense – enrollment and attendance in an approved Chemical Dependency Program.
 2. 2nd offense – two week suspension from activity plus re-take Chemical Dependency Program.
 3. 3rd offense – immediate expulsion from activity for two sports seasons.

* Depending on the nature and severity of the offense, consequences for violators under this section may be modified from the aforementioned at the sole discretion of the administration.

3. Attend school:
 - a) You are required to be in school at least half a day in order to practice or participate in an event. This includes attendance after a morning practice session.
 - b) Should practice or competition fall on a holiday or weekend, you must attend the last day of school prior to the activity.
 - c) Any student with 1 or more unexcused absences during the day will not be allowed to participate or practice that day.

[BP 3200, 3120]

4. Follow all school-related policies as stated in the student handbook.

[BP 3200, 3215, 3215F]

5. Each coach may have additional guidelines for his/her participants to follow during the season.
