

Bitterroot

CULTURE CAMP

WHAT ARE YOU DOING THIS SUMMER?

Be a part of the Bitterroot Culture Camp at Travelers' Rest State Park in Lolo, the area known as Tmsmli (Place of No Salmon) in Salish!

You can be one of 25 middle school students chosen from the Bitterroot Valley to meet up with your peers from the Flathead Reservation for a week of fun activities and friend making, all while learning about the crossroad of cultures at the park throughout history! Participants will learn leadership skills, respect for Elders and the landscape, be an active part of the camp community, and complete a service project!

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

- Must be entering 6th-8th grade in Fall 2017
- Complete and send in an application form with questions answered
- Submit place holding deposit
- Show a positive attitude and have an interest in new friends and cultures!

PROGRAM DATES

Application Deadline: May 26th

Camp Dates: June 19th-23rd
